This is to advise of developments in the case in which Abbie Hoffman was indicted on 5/13/71 on Federal antiriot charges by a Federal Grand Jury at Washington, D. C. The charges are based on his travel from Oklahoma to Washington, D. C., to participate in the disruptions which occurred during the recent May Day demonstrations, and his actual participation in the disruptions.

Joseph Tafe, Internal Security Division, the Departmental Attorney handling this matter, has advised that a hearing was held in U. S. District Court on 7/21/71 on pretrial motions. Tafe advised that routine motions by the defense regarding dismissal of charges, request for a bill of particulars, examination of prospective jurors, and request for an indefinite continuance were all denied. The court took under consideration defense motions for discovery and inspection and regarding the electronic surveillance issue; rulings will be handed down at a later date.

Abbott H. Hoffman

Abbie Gets His Nose Fixed

By JAY LEVIN N.Y.

As Abbie Hoffman puts it, his nose happened to hit a cop's nightstick during the Mayday demonstrations while the rest of his face was busy beating up the poor stick. His nose got scrunched by its efforts, and so like any good Jewish Yippie leader, he's getting it fixed.

What do you call a nose job for a Yippie? Martha Mitchell would probably call it radical surgery.

As Abbie tells it from his bed at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine's hospital in the Bronx, it isn't beauty he seeks but breath. "I had a slipped disk and I had 20 stitches taken in my head and I had a broken nose," he said nasally recalling the fight with the nightstick. "And in the past two months I've been to doctors. So I just had an operation. Deviated septum job. I couldn't breathe through my nose so well so I could operate. It was all el smasho."

"Also, I did develop an infection. One more step..." His voice trailed off ominously, and the heart of the FBI man tapping on the phone skipped a hopeful beat.

Hoffman was arrested while allegedly taking part in the Mayday traffic stoppage. He was later indicted on charges of crossing state lines to incite a riot and interfering with an officer.

Abbie claims he interfered with the officer in the same way his nose beat up the stick. "He tackled me from behind, rolled me over and hit me five or six times in the face with a club. That's the last that I remember."

His lawyers have considered a countersuit which would seek to wring from the government more than the price of a nose job. But someone has stolen the evidence and J. Edgar's men aren't known to be investigating the theft.

"We had six photos of me getting clubbed," Abbie said. "They were at the People Peace Treaty office and some kids from Long Island ran off with them as souvenirs."

A nose job being a six-day affair, the patient says he's killing time by working on a new book. "I'm doing a sequel to 'Steal This Book: Bankrobbery Made Easy.' No kidding," he kidded. "I've all these interviews with bankrobbers."

Time for a closing line. "Listen, man, I gotta go. I gotta watch 'The FBI.' They're looking for a personal friend in this episode."

ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN

Attached to this memorandum is a copy of a two page motion filed August 27, 1971, with the United States Court of Appeals (USCA), Seventh Circuit, Chicago, by Thomas M. Haney, local Chicago counsel for Hoffman. The motion was furnished on August 30, 1971, by Assistant United States Attorney James Breen, Northern District of Illinois, and is self-explanatory in nature concerning the request by Hoffman for USCA permission to travel to Jamaica during the last week in September, 1971, and again for the period November, 1971, through February, 1972.

In connection with this request, and the reason therefor, it might be noted Hoffman was a convicted defendant in the so-called Conspiracy Seven trial, Chicago, which took place over the period September, 1969, through February, 1970, and involved those persons earlier indicted for violation of the Federal Antiriot Statute, as a result of actions surrounding the August, 1968, Democratic National Convention, Chicago. In addition, at the conclusion of that trial, Hoffman was cited for contempt of court by the presiding trial judge, these contempt citations resulting from actions and statements of Hoffman in court during its course. On February 15, 1970, he was ordered incarcerated without bond in Cook County Jail, Chicago, as a result of the above.

On February 28, 1970, he was ordered admitted to bond by the USCA, however, was instructed to advise the United States Marshal, Chicago, of all travel outside the State of his residence, and to secure permission of the USCA for all

Mrs. Abbott Howard Hoffman

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE SEVENTH CIRCUIT

In the Matter of

DAVID T. DELLINGER, et al.

Appellants.

No. 18294

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

DAVID DELLINGER, et al.

No. 18295

MOTION

Appellant Abbott H. Hoffman moves for the entry of an order granting him permission to travel to Jamaica during the last week of September 1971 and again for the period from November 1971 through February 1972.

In support of this motion the appellant states:

1. He intends to travel to Jamaica during the last week of September 1971 in order to locate a place of residence for himself and his family for the period from November 1971 through February 1972; after locating such a residence in September he will return to the United States.

2. He intends to reside in Jamaica during the period from November 1971 through February 1972 with his family, for the following reasons:

- a) He has undergone several physical injuries during the past several months and would like this opportunity to recover his health.
- b) His wife recently gave birth to their first child, and he feels that his wife should have a period of rest.
- c) He intends to be writing a new book during this period.

He intends to reside in Jamaica during this period but acknowledges that he may have to travel to the United States on one or more occasions to consult with his attorneys or for other legal matters.

3. He does not yet know where he will be staying in Jamaica during the last week in September but he will notify the U. S. Marshal as soon as he knows where he will reside or where he may be contacted. His place of residence during the period from November 1971 through February 1972 will depend on the success of his efforts in September to obtain a suitable residence for the later period.

4. He does not know the exact dates of his travel yet, but he will notify the U. S. Marshal as soon as his plans are confirmed.

5. He acknowledges that it is somewhat early to apply to this court for permission to travel to Jamaica during the period from November 1971 to February 1972, but he feels that there would be no need for him to go to Jamaica in September unless he knows that he will have the permission of this court to travel to Jamaica again during the later period, since the only purpose of his first trip is to locate accommodations for his later trip.

WHEREFORE, the appellant respectfully requests the entry of an order as set forth above.

Respectfully submitted,

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum of August 31, 1971, above caption, which set forth detailed information regarding the plans of Hoffman to visit Jamaica in the last week of September, 1971, and to reside there during the period November, 1971, through February, 1972.

That information was contained in a motion filed August 27, 1971, with the United States Court of Appeals (USCA), Seventh Circuit, Chicago, on behalf of Hoffman, along with a request for court approval of that travel.

On September 8, 1971, Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) James Breen, Northern District of Illinois (NDI), made available a copy of a supplemental motion filed September 7, 1971, with the USCA on behalf of Hoffman. The motion stated Hoffman now desired to travel to the U. S. Virgin Islands during the last week of September, 1971, and to reside there from November, 1971, through approximately April, 1972. This represented a change in his plans as set forth in his August 27, 1971, motion, in that he now has no plans to go to Jamaica.

Hoffman regretted any inconvenience caused either to the U. S. Government or the USCA by this change in plans. The purposes for which he desired to make this travel were the same as set forth in the August 27, 1971, motion with regard to Jamaica (and set forth in referenced memorandum). He advised of his intention to notify the United States Marshal at Chicago as to where he would stay, or where he could be contacted during both of his planned trips to the Virgin Islands.

Breen advised that as of September 8, 1971, the USCA had not responded to this supplemental travel motion of Hoffman.

On July 21, 1971, JOSEPH TAFF, Departmental Attorney, United States Department of Justice (USDJ), advised SA [REDACTED], that GERALD LEFCOURT and PHILIP J. HIRSCHMAN, attorneys for subject, appeared before Judge J. LEWIS SMITH, United States District Court (USDJ) for the District of Columbia, at 9:30 a.m., for the purpose of obtaining rulings by SMITH on motions brought before him on June 2, 1971.

The motions and rulings were as follows:

A defense motion to dismiss the indictment against HOFFMAN on the grounds that the statutes (18 U.S. Code 2101, 231 (A) (3), (Interstate Travel with intent to organize, promote, encourage and participate in a riot; obstructing, impeding and interfering with law enforcement officer during the commission of a civil disorder.)), under which the indictment was returned, were unconstitutional. Motion denied.

A defense motion to dismiss the indictment for failure to state an offense. Denied.

A defense motion for indefinite continuance of the HOFFMAN case. Denied.

A defense motion to have the Government file a bill of particulars. Denied.

A defense motion concerning voir dire (Defense wanted to conduct the proceedings which concern jury selection). Denied. Judge SMITH said the Court will ask the voir dire questions but that parties may submit specific questions to him, which they may want asked of the jury, and that he will then act on these requests.

Motions by both Government and Defense for discovery and inspection. Order to follow, no ruling as yet.

WFO 176-282

Defense motion to dismiss indictment for bias on the part of the Grand Jury. Informally denied.

TAFE said that HOFFMAN was not present at Court on this occasion, due to the fact that his wife had just given birth to a child. Subject's bail continued to be set at $20,000.

No further dates were, at that time, set for future proceedings in this case.

On September 20, 1971, TAFE advised SA [REDACTED] that the motions, above mentioned, remain in a pending status. There have been no further Court proceedings nor have there been any dates set for future proceedings, according to TAFE.

On 9/28/71, U.S. Attorney (USA) JOEL D. SACKS advised that HOFFMAN's impersonation of CROSETTI was a misdemeanor. This was not reported in the LHM in order to avoid possible embarrassment to USA SACKS, who later advised that he had determined that it was a possible felony. 67C

On 10/1/71, [REDACTED] Special Agent, examined the rental car turned in by HOFFMAN and among other papers not pertinent, found a St. Thomas Guide Book on which the following had been written on the cover:

"Mr. CROSETTI call 4-1401 Mr. WEATHERBY 9:30"

"LYNNE - 4150"

All investigation reported in LHM was conducted by SA [REDACTED]

In view of the relocation of HOFFMAN to the Virgin Islands on or about 10/15/71, it is requested that San Juan be furnished with all available background information regarding HOFFMAN, including identities and photographs of associates. NY

In view of the lack of information available with reference to Mr. and Mrs. DAN LEVINSON, the possibility cannot be overlooked that one or both might be fugitives. It is requested that photographs and descriptions of fugitives likely to be contacted by HOFFMAN be furnished to San Juan.

SAN JUAN AT ST. THOMAS VIRGIN ISLANDS: Will continue investigation to identify Mr. and Mrs. DAN LEVINSON.

HOFFMAN's appearance has been changed as a result of the nose operation. In view of the size of the St. Thomas community, it would be extremely difficult to photograph HOFFMAN at St. Thomas and it is requested that New York furnish San Juan with current photographs of HOFFMAN. // p-4

ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum of September 17, 1971, under Hoffman's caption, which reflected the approval by the United States Court of Appeals, (USCA), Seventh Circuit, Chicago, of a request by Hoffman for Court permission to travel to and subsequently reside in the United States Virgin Islands (USVI) during the last week of September, 1971, and in the period November, 1971 through April, 1972.

On October 18, 1971, Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) James Breen, Northern District of Illinois, advised that on October 15, 1971, a motion had been filed on Hoffman's behalf with the USCA, which motion had requested court authorization of travel to the USVI on October 22, 1971, to remain through April, 1972. The motion had noted the prior court approval of residence in the USVI, commencing November, 1971, however, Hoffman indicated his desire to leave the United States earlier than November, as he had now obtained a residence in the Virgin Islands, and was able to leave the country at this time. While in the USVI in the period of this residence, his address would be 1441 Frenchmans Bay, St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, 00801.

On October 19, 1971, Breen advised that the USCA in an order dated October 18, 1971, had granted Hoffman permission to depart for the Virgin Islands on October 22, 1971, as requested, and for the period indicated.
